PROJECTS

Personal Learning Tracker – UX Research & Product Design Project

- Description: Identified a common challenge among UI/UX apprentices in retaining and tracking learned concepts. Conducted user interviews, analyzed learning workflows, and designed a concept solution to help users organize, revisit, and monitor their learning progress.
- Impact: Addressed a real user problem by creating a structured learning management experience that improves knowledge retention, progress visibility, and long-term learning consistency.

SoundZone – Responsive E-Commerce Landing Page

- Description: Designed a responsive e-commerce landing page for a premium audio brand using Figma. Created reusable components, Auto Layout structures, product showcase sections, testimonials, and brand-focused visual hierarchy.
- Impact: Improved user engagement and product discoverability through responsive layouts, scalable component design, and a visually compelling shopping experience.

Mathmos App – UI/UX Case Study

- Description: Identified an opportunity for Mathmos to expand its digital experience through a dedicated mobile app. Designed a concept app in Figma featuring product discovery, customization, user flows, wireframes, high-fidelity screens, and a reusable design system.
- Impact: Proposed a user-centered solution that enhances product discoverability, streamlines customization, and extends the brand experience beyond its existing digital channels.
